

JOB POSTING

POSITION TITLE: FAMILY SUPPORT COORDINATOR

ORGANIZATION SUMMARY

The Teresa Group (TTG) is a charitable, non-profit, community-based organization located in Toronto, Canada. The Teresa Group advances the dignity and well-being of children, youth and their families affected by HIV and AIDS. The organization includes a team of qualified staff providing a comprehensive range of frontline services to hundreds of local children and families. The Teresa Group is committed to building a workforce that reflects the communities we serve and promotes a diverse, anti-racist, inclusive, accessible, merit-based, respectful, and equitable workplace.

In keeping with our continuing efforts towards greater representation, we welcome applicants with relevant lived experience and a broad reflection of identities including Black, Indigenous, People of Colour (BIPOC), LGBTQ2SI+, age, abilities, and socio-economic background.

POSITION SUMMARY

The Teresa Group is currently seeking an experienced and skilled social worker to augment its existing frontline family support team in its busy Family Support Program. This is an exciting and demanding full-time position that involves a high degree of collaboration and teamwork as well as ongoing client support and counseling, program development and evaluation.

The Family Support Coordinator is part of the Family Support Team and reports to the Program Manager. Working within a social justice framework, the Family Support Worker will provide support to a highly diverse group of children and families impacted by HIV/AIDS. The Family Support Coordinator is required to work in ways that are respectful and inclusive of all service users, staff and volunteers and promotes the mission and values of The Teresa Group (TTG). This includes the commitments to the greater involvement and meaningful engagement of people living with HIV/AIDS (GIPA/MEPA), anti-oppression, anti-racism, and anti-discrimination.

Specific duties and responsibilities will include, but are not limited to the following:

INTAKE AND ASSESSMENT

- Conduct intakes and baseline assessments with new clients.
- Inform clients about programs and services being offered at the organization.
- Function as a resource for clients, volunteers, and community members.
- Make effective referrals to other relevant community organizations.
- Actively collaborate with other service providers and attend community network meetings.

FAMILY SUPPORT AND CASE MANAGEMENT

- Provide families with practical and emotional support.
- Assess practical needs including financial needs and access to external referral sources for support.
- Liaise with Hospitals, Clinics, Community Health Centers and AIDS Service Organizations.
- Manage supply and distribution of practical supports including diapers, winter clothing and food.
- Organize/attend case conferences to support clients.
